

Alan C. Blumberg

August 9, 1952 - June 3, 2025

Alan Charles Blumberg, 72, passed away on Tuesday, June 3, 2025, in Houston, Texas. He was born on August 9, 1952, in Cape Town, South Africa, and moved to Houston in 1986, where he built a good life full of love, laughter, and close connections.

Alan served in the South African army and started his career in construction before switching gears and becoming a lighting salesman in Houston. He was a people person, always quick to strike up a conversation or crack a joke - he made lasting impressions everywhere he went.

He was proud of his Jewish heritage and had a wide range of passions. He loved fishing, golf, digging into history, and was rarely seen without a camera in hand - always ready to capture the important moments in life, big and small. Anyone who knew him knows he loved to laugh and make others laugh too. His sense of humor was one of a kind.

Alan was preceded in death by his parents, Oscar and Rhoda Blumberg, and his son, Warren Blumberg. He is survived by his wife, Bonnie, his sons Justin (Becky) and Stuart (Julie), and two sisters Beverly Katz and Jill Stern. He was a proud and loving grandpa to Owen, Shayna, Zoe, and Ruby, who brought him endless joy. He also leaves behind many nieces, nephews, and a big circle of extended family and friends who meant the world to him.

He will be remembered for his warmth, his wit, and how much he loved his family. We will miss him more than words can say.

A graveside service will be held at 3:00 PM on Friday, June 6, 2025, at Beth Jacob Cemetery, 2300 Almeda Genoa Rd., Houston, Texas 77047.

In lieu of flowers, please send donations to Seven Acres Jewish Senior Care Services – www.sevenacres.org/tributes.
