

Amiram Fishman

December 12, 1948 - October 30, 2021

Amiram Fishman, born December 12, 1948, peacefully passed away on Saturday October 30, 2021 surrounded by family. Amiram, lovingly know by friends and family as Ami, was born and raised in Haifa, Israel. After serving his country in the Israeli Air Force and participating in the Six Day War, he moved to the Houston area to pursue a mechanical engineering degree at the University of Houston. As devoted to his country as he was, he interrupted his education and returned to Israel in 1973 to serve in the Yom Kippur War. Ami had a passion for soccer, travel, food, and spending time with his family. Ami is preceded in death by his parents, Aba & Rachael Fishman and his brother Hagai. He is survived by his wife, Nancy Irvine Fishman, whom he loved and adored for over 45 years, his step-son Keith Irvine and wife, Kara. He also leaves behind the biggest joys of his life, grandchildren, Emory Brooks, Korbin William and Ellis Michael. A graveside service will be held at 11:30 AM on Monday, November 1, 2021 at Congregation Beth Israel Memorial Park, 1101 Antoine Dr. Houston, TX 77055.
