

Barbara Dvoretzky

July 7, 1939 - January 12, 2019

Barbara Ann Kramsky Dvoretzky, 79, passed away Saturday, January 12th, 2019. She was born on the 7th of July 1939, in Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Barbara was the oldest daughter of Charles and Sari Kramsky.

Barbara leaves her husband of 59 years (60 years on February 14, 2019), Sidney Dvoretzky; her son, Barry Dvoretzky; her daughter, Vicki Dvoretzky Abrams; and her grandchildren, Michael, Amanda and Allison. Barbara is also survived by her sister Marsha Kramsky.

Shortly after graduating high school, Barbara went on to work for the Milwaukee School Board. She took a brief trip to Houston, Texas, where she went on a double date. This date was where she met Sidney, although the pair were not matched on the date. A spark was ignited that evening between the two, as just a few months later the two were engaged then shortly later married. Barbara and Sidney moved to Milwaukee to start their family. After 8 years in Milwaukee, the Dvoretzky family relocated to Houston, Texas.

Barbara worked at Baylor College of Medicine in Family Medicine, where she eventually retired in 2001, in order to babysit her youngest grandchild. In her spare time, Barbara enjoyed trying out new recipes, sewing and spending time making her loved ones happy. Barbara loved her husband and children very much, but her grandchildren were the real gems in her eyes. Barbara was so very proud of her grandchildren and each of their accomplishments.

Barbara was a caring and loving wife, mother, grandmother, and friend.
Barbara will be dearly missed by her family and loved ones.

Tribute Wall

CJ

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. Grief can be a difficult emotion to deal with. There are, however, 12 basic guidelines that can help you cope with grieving. They're used by many grief counselors and they're also biblical. You can download a free copy of the magazine titled "Help for those who Grieve "@JW.ORG

Cj - January 18, 2019 at 12:14 PM