

Bernice Diskin Reichstein

October 29, 1924 - November 10, 2019

Bernice Diskin Reichstein was born in Newark, New Jersey to Isidor and Fanny Gerzovsky on October 29, 1924 and passed away peacefully on November 10, 2019. Her family moved to Houston in 1928 and she remained there throughout her life. She was a graduate of San Jacinto High School and Massey Business College.

Bernice married Murray Diskin on July 4, 1946 and they had four children: Ira (Judy), Feiga (Mark Z"L), Joslynn (Joseph) and Howard (Melanie). She was blessed with eight grandchildren, Leah Saltzman (Sam), Maury Diskin (Lenae), Jeremy Diskin, Danielle Carlson (Michael), Joel Rinkoff (Rebecca), Joy Anderson, Meredith Diskin and Gregory Diskin and their mother Anne Diskin. She was further blessed with nine great grandchildren, Seth, Scott and Kylie Saltzman, Jonah and Ari Carlson, Heath Diskin, MacKenzie and Delaney Diskin, and Robert Rinkoff. Bernice was preceded in death by her sister and brother-in-law Adele and Max Lewis who were the parents of her adored niece and nephew, Cheryl Nussenblatt (Michael) and Edward Lewis. In June of 1982 Bernice married her long-time friend, Abe Reichstein (Z"L). Family and friendship meant the world to Bernice, and she loved and cherished her large circle of friends and each and every family member. Bernice was active in the Workman's Circle, and she was a Life Member of Hadassah, serving as treasurer of Stephen S. Wise for many years. She was a regular volunteer at Seven Acres and earned Volunteer of the Year. She loved playing mahjong, going to the casino, and making her very popular mandel bread.

In lieu of flowers, Bernice requested donations be made in her memory to Hadassah @ 40 Wall Street, New York, NY 10005.
