

Bruce William Schoendorf

January 11, 1953 - December 31, 2021

Bruce William Schoendorf, age 68, passed away suddenly on December 31, 2021. Born on January 11, 1953 in Neptune, New Jersey, he was the son of Murray Schoendorf and the late Patricia Schoendorf. Bruce graduated from North Texas State in Denton, Texas, where he earned a bachelor's degree in music. He was an accomplished musician and loved playing the guitar. Bruce was a stockbroker for over 35 years. But without a doubt, his most cherished accomplishment was that of being a father to his beloved daughter, Rochelle Marian, and his son, Harrison Fish. Bruce's passions included music, cooking, grilling, restoring old cars, and fishing. He was a gourmet cook, and the family could not get enough of his wonderful dishes, especially his famous salmon and so much more. Bruce is survived by his wife, Lena, their daughter, Rochelle Marian, and his son, Harrison Fish. He is also survived by his father, Murray and wife Diane, and his brother, Alan Schoendorf. Due to Covid protocols, attendance at the service will be very limited, but please join us via life-stream at <https://venue.streamspot.com/f8d04b5b>.
