

Charles Ziegler

December 10, 1986 - January 23, 2018

On January 23rd, 2018, life was cut too short for Charles Michael Ziegler when he passed away at only 31 years of age. He was a proud graduate of Texas Tech University with a degree in Industrial Engineering. He began his career as an engineer in Lubbock where he continued to be an enthusiastic Red Raiders fan. Charles loved mathematics and had a passion for tutoring and teaching. After moving back to Houston, he followed his passion and began teaching IB Physics at The Post Oak School. In his short tenure there, Charles made learning fun by teaching with games like backgammon and blackjack. He made a lasting impact on his students and was a well-respected member of the faculty. He was smart, funny, and quick-witted. He loved blues guitar and taught himself to play music by Stevie Ray Vaughn. He was a loving son, brother, uncle and friend to many. Charles was predeceased by his father, David Ziegler. He is survived by his mother, Debbie, sister Melanie, brother Jeffrey, and niece and nephews Jayda, Jay, and Joseph. In lieu of flowers, the family has requested that memorial gifts be made to Houston Jewish Family Services.

Tribute Wall

“ I'm so sorry man. I will miss you.

Jared Cutting - June 19, 2022 at 06:10 PM