

Daniel Singer

May 28, 1950 - January 9, 2025

Daniel Singer of Houston, Texas passed away peacefully and surrounded by family on Thursday, January 9, 2025, at the age of 74. He will be remembered as a selfless and adoring father, husband, grandfather, uncle, and friend.

Daniel was born on May 28, 1950, to Rosita Guefen Singer (Gaon) and Benito Singer in Mexico City D.F. He grew up in Mexico City, spending summers in Cuernavaca, alongside his identical twin brother, Arturo, and sister, Ruth, both of blessed memory.

After living in Haifa, Israel in his early 20s, he moved to Houston, Texas, where he started a family and raised two daughters: Lauren Singer Harris (Brian) and Robyn Singer, both of whom who survive him. In Houston, Daniel worked as a commercial real estate broker with his stepfather, Albert Gaon, and brother.

Daniel later married his adoring wife, Stella Saenz Singer, who survives him, with whom he was together for over 32 years and married for 24 years. Daniel and Stella traveled the world together, enjoyed the simple things in life, and lived life to the fullest with their merged family.

Daniel also leaves behind his adoring grandchildren, Alexandra and Aaron Harris, his stepchildren, Ricardo Arce (Angela), Mauricio Arce (Patricia), and Claudia Arce, along with their children and grandchildren.

He was like a father to his nieces and nephews, Roselle Oberstein (Jacob), Albert Singer (Victoria), Ruthie Vysotskiy (Andrew), Rina Trakhtenberg (Leon), Daniella Waknin (Or), and David Singer (Hava), and adored time spent with their children.

The funeral service was held on Friday, January 10, 2025, at 3:00pm in the Sophia and Jack Bender Memorial Chapel at the Beth Yeshurun Post Oak Cemetery located at 7445 Awty School Lane, Houston, Texas 77055. The funeral service can also be viewed with the following link until April 10, 2025: <https://venue.streamspot.com/f8d04b5b>.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made in Daniel's memory to the Rosita and Albert Gaon Sephardic Heritage Program Endowment Fund at the Evelyn Rubenstein JCC Houston, 5601 S. Braeswood Boulevard, Houston, Texas 77096, or a charity of your choice.

“ To Stella, Daniel's family, and the extended family, I was so very sorry to learn of Daniel's passing. May his memory be for a blessing. Marilyn Hassid

“ The first time Vonnie and I met Daniel was back in 2020, when we arrived at Park on Enclave to see what would become our future home. As soon as we stepped out of the car and began looking at the patio, he approached us as if we had known each other for years. With his warm and friendly demeanor, he enthusiastically shared details about the house, its owners, the neighborhood, and of course, a little about himself.

He was practically welcoming us even before we moved in!

Daniel became a constant presence in our lives—always willing to share his experiences, advice, anecdotes from his latest trips, or simply greet us with a cheerful "Buenas tardes!"

Living across the street from him and Stella, we could often see him sitting on his porch, phone in hand, chatting with someone. It was comforting to know he was always "there," or walking around the community to check on everyone, like a good old friend watching over us.

One of our most recent happy moments with Daniel was when he noticed that our banana plant had started growing little fruits. He quickly came over to tell us, joking that the plant had grown "elotes," and asked us to save him a few when they were ready to eat. That brought a big smile to our faces!

A true gentleman, Daniel never complained about anything. Instead, he was always ready with his punchlines, stealing smiles from everyone—whether something had happened in the neighborhood or during conversations about the latest news.

We will deeply miss his kindness, warmth, and presence. Please keep Stella and his family in your thoughts and prayers during this difficult time.

Dios te Bendiga, Querido Amigo.
