

David Michael Marks

January 8, 1967 - November 18, 2019

David Michael Marks, 52, passed away suddenly, yet peacefully, on Monday, November 18, 2019, at a Katy hospital. He is survived by his beloved parents, Albert (Al) and Sarah Marks, as well as his sisters, Karen Marks-Aarons and Martha (Lyndie) Marks, and their husbands, Dr. Scott Aarons, and Joel Bromberg. He was the grandson of the late Max and Anna Dvoretzky.

Born January 8th, 1967 in Houston, David lived in Texas his entire life. David's great loves were his family and friends. He delighted in listening to all kinds of music and learning new information about many varied topics. He amazed everyone with his phenomenal memory.

David spent his happiest years at the Brookwood Community in Brookshire, Texas. He was deeply loved by the staff and other citizens there and was a cherished gift to all who knew him. Regarded for his compassionate and loving spirit, he will be greatly missed.

In lieu of flowers donations may be made in David's memory to N.A.M.I. (National Association for the Mentally Ill) or the Brookwood Community Scholarship Fund.
