

Dianne Beleiff

May 9, 1946 - February 23, 2024

Dianne Jaffe Beleiff, 77, passed away peacefully at her home in Richmond, Texas surrounded by her family on Thursday, February 23rd, 2024. Dianne was born on May 9th, 1946, to David and Lillian Jaffe in Philadelphia, Pa.

Dianne was a loving wife to Edward Beleiff, son of Harry and Sunny Beleiff, for 56 happy and joyful years sharing their lives and love with their three children, Howard Beleiff and Heidi Braunschweig of Jenkintown Pa, Alyson and Husband David Capin, and Brad and Wife Jennifer Beleiff. She was grandmother to Jamie and Casey McDaniel and Alyssa and Josh Jucker, Ethan Beleiff, and Jacob Capin, and Madison and Avery Beleiff. She was also Great Grandmother to Asher and Kinsley Jucker.

Dianne was preceded in death by her parents, David and Lillian Jaffe of Philadelphia Pa and Harry and Sunny Beleiff of Philadelphia, PA.

Primarily a mother and homemaker, Dianne was also known as a prodigious player of Mah Jong, who threw cracks and bams with wild abandon. She worked for many years with and for her cousin, friend and coworker Michelle Granite at the Village Frame Gallery where many of her customers became longtime friends, but her primary occupation was always the love and care of her family.

The list of people whose lives Dianne touched is far too numerous to enumerate, but she was a well-known member of each and every community where she lived and worked.

A funeral service will take place in the Bender Memorial Chapel at 10:00 AM on Monday, February 26, 2024, at Beth Yeshurun Post Oak, 7445 Awty School Lane, Houston, TX 77005. A Shiva Minyan service will be held at the family home immediately following temple services.

“ Dianne, You and your family were my “family” when I lived in Texas and I felt like I had a sister. Although, we didn’t see each other that often, you were always in my heart. I’m so grateful that we were together in 2022.
I will always love you, Eddie and your family. Rest in peace dear friend and know that you will always be in my heart.
