

Doris Levin

March 25, 1921 - November 29, 2020

Beloved wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, aunt, and friend Doris Levin passed away on November 29, 2020 at the age of ninety-nine. She is survived by her son Stan Levin, son Jerry Levin and his wife Sonya, daughter Shelley Streusand and her late husband Stan, sister Ruthie Stevenson, grandchildren Lindsey Macomber and husband Tom; Eliot Levin and fiancé Lindsay Nussbaum; Jamie Gitlin and husband Greg; Adam Streusand; Ryan Streusand and wife Debra; great-grandchildren Max and Josie Macomber; Mia, Jude, Quinn, and Oliver Levin; Sam Gitlin, and numerous nieces and nephews. She also leaves behind her loving and tireless caregivers from Loving Arms, especially Ayanna Williams and weekly hairdresser Jodi Snell. She was preceded in death by her husband Bernard, her parents Fannie and Isaac Ozon, brother Albert, and sisters Betty Moore and Celia Holste.

Doris was born in Galveston in 1921, the second of five children. She met her husband Bernard on Murdoch beach and we are told he fell for her the moment he met her. They married and built their home together in Texas City and raised three beautiful children together. They spent fifty-nine years devoted to each other until Bernard passed in 2000.

Doris was a beautiful person inside and out. She never met a stranger and was quick to learn the name and life story of anyone with which she came in contact. She had a kind heart, never a mean bone in her body, and always a positive outlook. She loved to laugh, especially with her sisters, brother, family, and friends.

A private burial will be held for the family on Wednesday, December 2, 2020 at 2pm. If you would like to join via Zoom, please contact a family member. In lieu of flowers, please donate to the charity of your choice.

“ Mrs. Levin's son, Stan, was my best friend growing up and i spent a lot of time at their house. Mrs Levin was a kind and friendly person. I have many fond memories of her and the entire Levin family. I feel fortunate to have had the opportunity to have her as a friend for over 60 years. Emken Linton
