

Dorothy Jo Nachlas

October 31, 1928 - November 13, 2016

Dorothy Jo ("Dotty") Nachlas, a lifetime resident of Houston, Texas, died Sunday evening, November 13, 2016 at St. Luke's Hospital. Dotty was predeceased by her parents, Malvin and Laura Norma Wolff. She grew up in Houston, Texas and graduated from Lamar High School, and later attended the University of Texas at Austin. For many years, Dotty worked in the family electronic supplies business.

She was born on October 31, 1928. Dotty had many beloved friends and was a long-time member of Congregation Beth Israel. She enjoyed dinners and socializing with family and friends, and she especially loved to travel. Above all, what she most cherished was going out to eat with her children and grandchildren.

Dotty was married to the late Sid Nachlas for 51 years. Their life revolved around their family. She is survived by her children, Steven Nachlas and wife Amy Burton, Carol Rudy, Julie Bogar and husband Matt Bogar; grandchildren, Brian Nachlas, Hannah Rudy, Adam Rudy, Matthew Bogar IV, Laura Bogar, Katie Bogar; great-grandchildren, Tucker Nachlas, Anabelle Bogar and Adelyn Bogar, as well as her nieces.

The family wishes to extend its heartfelt appreciation to the wonderful caregivers who provided support and companionship to Dotty for the last several years; we love them as family. The family also extends its deepest thanks and gratitude to Dr. Raymond Stainback, her long-time doctor who helped Dotty achieve a better quality of life.

Graveside service will be held at 11:00 a.m., Thursday, November 17, 2016, at Beth Israel Memorial Gardens, 1101 Antoine Rd, Houston, TX 77055.

Contributions in memory of Dotty may be made to the Texas Heart Institute or to a charity of your choice.
