

Elaine Susan Feiner

August 14, 1944 - January 19, 2026

Elaine Susan Feiner, 81, passed away peacefully in her sleep on the night of Monday, January 19, 2026, in Houston, Texas.

Elaine was born on August 14, 1944, in Lynn, Massachusetts to the late Allan and Mary Rosenfield. She was an intelligent woman who was very devoted to the Jewish faith and was a member at Congregation Beth Yeshurun for over 30 years. Throughout her life, she found joy in certain hobbies such as bowling, needlepoint, cooking, baking, mahjong, and the television show, Perry Mason. She was also very passionate about donating to the Special Olympics charity.

Elaine was a beloved wife and mother. She was preceded in death by her parents, two older sisters, Sylvia and Marcia Rosenfield, and her late husband, Jerry Feiner. She is survived by her two children, Allan Feiner and Alana Stanley, as well as her grandchildren, Kaitlyn Galloway-Feiner and Noey Stanley. She is also survived by extended family including her stepchildren, Beth Zeitman, Gary Feiner, and Michael Feiner; Beth's children, Ethan and Emily Zeitman, who consider Elaine to be their safta; and Gary's son, Avi Feiner. Many family members had the blessing to spend time with Elaine one last time at Emily Zeitman's wedding which occurred in October of 2025, and it was more than a joyous occasion.

Elaine's family would like to express a deep appreciation to the Memorial Hermann staff for their efforts to enhance Elaine's life during her final days.

A graveside service took place on Wednesday, January 21, 2026, at 2:00 pm at Beth Yeshurun Post Oak Cemetery, 7445 Awty School Lane, Houston, Texas 77055.

“ You made a lasting impression on my life. You explained many things Jewish to me that I never understood. Part of me thought you would be around forever. I love you Elaine and I will see you a little farther down the creek.

Love, sweetness and creativity. Both Guy currently in this post and life, and Elaine earlier represent these things.
