

Elliott Polunsky

March 25, 1939 - August 27, 2022

Elliott Polunsky, 83, passed away peacefully on August 27, 2022 in Houston, Texas. He was born in San Antonio to the late Esther and Joseph Polunsky on March 25, 1939. Elliott was the beloved husband of Janie, father of Brent Polunsky and his wife, April Wilson, and Dana Abramczyk and her husband, Robert, grandfather of Michael Polunsky, Emily Ruth Abramczyk and Seth Abramczyk and his fiancée, Simone Oliver, and brother of Melvin Polunsky and his wife, Anne. Elliott began a long successful career in the furniture industry selling staples for pneumatic staple guns in 1962. Born to be a salesman, he progressed to selling wholesale furniture, then owning a furniture distribution company. He finished his career the way he started, traveling South Texas selling furniture to retailers. The family would like to thank Dr. Ivan Mefford and the medical team with Amed/Choice Hospice, especially nurses Ray Fore and Nicholas Martinez. We would also like to thank our friends and neighbors in the Del Webb Sweetgrass community, as well as Susan Hollins, and Juanna and Maria Aguirre for their love and support. A graveside service was held on Tuesday, August 30th at 11:00 am at Emanu El Memorial Park, 8341 Bissonnet Street, Houston, TX 77004. In the Jewish tradition, one of the greatest honors one can bestow on someone is to perform a mitzvah (act of kindness) on their behalf. Since Elliott loved helping others, please consider doing a mitzvah in his memory or making a donation to the Pancreatic Cancer Action Network (pancan.org).

“ My deepest sympathy to the Polunsky family. I knew Elliot from the furniture business and was always impressed by his love of the job and his customers. We had many great conversations at furniture markets and I respected him for his knowledge and good humor.
