“ My sympathy to Ethel's family on her passing. I was not aware of her recent death until today. Ethel was a friend for many years. We met through our activities of Desk & Derrick. We travelled together and with other friends to Florida, California, and many Texas' destinations. We especially enjoyed Mardi Gras celebrations with her friends Joyce, Alice and others, as well as celebrating birthdays and retirement. May she rest in peace.

“ I met Ms.Ethel, through my mom when I was 15 as a junior volunteer for Woman's Hospital, I will never forget how loving and kind she was to me then and for the past 20years. She always asked about my boys who she became a Bubbe to. It was so heart breaking to hear of her passing but I enjoy the memories with her and her getting after me over the phone telling me not to stress my mom out. I'm glad my children got to meet you and share in these memories of you. We will forever remember your sweet smile and big hugs.

“ Thanks to a movie date with Ethel, Gloria Teles Pushker was able to share a story with her children why she was able to live to 93. Gloria made arrangements to go to the movie with Ethel. In the meantime, Gloria was invited to go on a boating trip with a "boyfriend". Gloria would not break the date with Ethel because they were best friends, and it had been previously planned. The "boyfriend" was very disappointed Gloria would not go out with him. Thank goodness Gloria did not go on the boating trip, because there was a terrible wreck and everyone drowned.
