

Fay Patricia Slusky

July 31, 1922 - June 13, 2021

Fay Patricia Slusky passed away peacefully on Sunday, June 13, 2021 in Houston, Texas just short of her 99th birthday. She was born July 31, 1922, in St. Louis, Missouri to the late Morris and Esther Gasting Rosenberg. Fay proudly served as an Army nurse during World War II. After the war, she continued to practice nursing. One of her patients tried to fix her up on a blind date with a cousin of his. However, that cousin couldn't go and suggested his brother go on the date. The date was a big success because his brother ended up being her husband, Louis Slusky. They were married in 1955, and in November 1956, their twins Elliott and Harvey were born. She devoted her life to her family. She was a busy mother to her boys and devoted to her husband Louis. She was also very close to her extended St. Louis family and often made excuses to visit her family when her boys were in college in St. Louis (just so she could see them and do their laundry). She was preceded in death by her parents and her sisters Selma Katz, Lucille Margulis, Sarah Rosenberg, and her brother Billy Rosenberg. She is survived by her sons Elliott (Sharon) Slusky and Harvey (Lisa) Slusky and was Bubbie to her adoring grandchildren Robyn Slusky, Julie Slusky and fiancé Brogan Brasseaux, Rachel Slusky, and Sam Slusky. She also is survived by her nieces and nephews, great nieces and nephews, and great-great nieces and nephews. The family would like to express their appreciation to her devoted caregivers Vivian Robinson, Abby Anyanwu, Michelle Knapp, and Karen Cole. Graveside services were held at Chesed Shel Emeth Cemetery in St. Louis, Missouri on Thursday, June 17, 2021. Donations may be made to Hadassah, 24 Braeswood Square, Houston TX 77096, Texas Hearing Institute, 3100 Shenandoah St, Houston TX 77021 (www.texashearing.org), ThisIsHouston, PO Box 2821, Houston TX 77252 (www.this-is-houston.org), or to the charity of your choice.
