“ Fifty years ago, I became an associate for Woody and Rosen law firm. Ironically, I became the senior associate in a few months and I was in that firm for the first 4 1/2 years of my fifty year practice of law and gained an extraordinary amount of knowledge and experience regarding the practice of law. I would frequently be called to come to the Rosen home, where I originally met Fred. I can only relate my brief experiences, but those experiences made a lasting impression of me because of the way Fred related to me, a young attorney. Fred was always gracious, friendly, self-deprecating, funny always offered me food and made me feel at home when I was there in their home. Fred was a mensch. Over the years, I have run into Fred and Marian at Costco and we always stopped and talked and found out how each other was doing and we exchanged information about our families as well. I am deeply saddened by Fred's passing. He had a very kind and empathetic heart. Fred was always a wonderful person to me and Barbie and I want to send our deepest sympathy and regards to Marian for this great loss.
