

Gerard Kavanaugh Stephen Schicker

August 17, 1949 - January 2, 2025

Gerard Kavanaugh Stephen Schicker was born August 17, 1949, the fifth child of John and Ruth Schicker, in St. Louis, Missouri. A graduate of Benedictine College, he spent the bulk of his career in alcoholic beverage sales in the greater Houston area. He was a beloved father, brother, coach, and bonus grandfather.

If you saw Gerry coming, you could expect bad jokes, great toasts, and absolute joy. Gerry lit up every room he entered and was fully present in any game he played (and probably beat you at). He sang showtunes with his whole being, knew the lyrics by heart, and was always ready to teach them to you.

Gerry is survived by his beloved wife, Fiona Schicker; his children, Simone (Keith), Jackie (Greg), and Sean; and his bonus grandchildren Tobias, Naomi, and Ramona. He is also survived by two of his siblings: Penelope Terry and Jim Schicker, and Sister-in-Law Beulah Schicker. He is predeceased by his parents and his older siblings Jay Schicker and Judy Luepke.

In lieu of flowers, please consider donating to one of Gerry's favorite charities, the Houston Food Bank (<https://www.houstonfoodbank.org/>) or the Astros Foundation (<https://www.mlb.com/astros/community/foundation/about>).

“ I went to St. Gabriel catholic grade school with Jerry. We graduated in 1963. Jerry was a crazy but great guy. Our Dad's coached our CYC baseball teams. His parents house was headquarters growing up. There were many all night card games in that basement. He once broke his arm or leg and we played cards all night in the hospital.

I heard he moved to Texas and that was the last info that I had.
