

Harriet Lichtman Schorr

October 17, 1947 - June 18, 2025

Harriet Lee Lichtman Schorr was born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, to Morris and Evelyn Lichtman. She graduated from Lower Merion Senior High School and Drexel Institute of Technology. Soon after graduation, she and Stephen Schorr were married, and she began teaching school in Philadelphia. Steve and Harriet moved to Silver Spring, Maryland, then to Gaithersburg, Maryland. Their family was completed when Amy Elizabeth and Matthew David were born.

In 1979, the family moved to Houston, where Steve worked at the VA Hospital Dental Clinic. Harriet taught Kindergarten at Lovett Elementary School for twenty-one years, retiring in 2009. She and Steve traveled extensively, and she greatly enjoyed activities and meeting people. She especially liked playing mahjong with friends over the years. Her mahjong groups provided her with many happy hours and friendships. She enjoyed being part of a ladies' lunch group which has continued meeting over many years and good friendships.

Harriet was very proud of her children and their spouses: Amy Schorr Rose, DDS, and husband, Rob Rose of Cedar Park, TX. Also, Air Force Colonel Matthew and Alison Schorr of Yorktown, VA.

She was blessed with five wonderful grandchildren: Edward and Grant Rose, and Evan, Samuel, and Macy Schorr. She is also survived by her husband, Stephen Schorr, DMD, and her dear sister, Eileen Dolfman, and brother-in-law, Dr. Michael Dolfman, of Highland Beach, Florida. Also, survived by her niece, Randi Schwartz (Dan), and nephew, Marc Dolfman (Adina), and their children.

A funeral service will be held in the Proler Chapel at Beth Israel Memorial Garden on Sunday, June 22, 2025, at 2:00 PM, 1101 Antoine St., Houston, TX 77055.
