

Harriett D. Cooper

November 9, 1929 - November 7, 2022

Harriett Dicter Cooper, beloved wife, devoted mother, grandmother, great-grandmother and friend died peacefully on November 7, 2022, in Houston, Texas, two days short of her 93rd birthday. Harriett was born on November 9, 1929, in Louisville, Kentucky. She was the oldest of two daughters born to Mary and Samuel Dicter.

Harriett married Calvin Cooper on October 11, 1953, and a year and a day later, they had their only child, Sherrie Lynn. Two years later, they moved to Dallas, Texas, where they built many wonderful relationships with friends who became their extended family. Harriett's greatest joy was being with her husband, family, and friends. She was an excellent cook and loved creating a beautiful and inviting home where she warmly welcomed many guests over the years. In 2019, Harriett and Calvin moved to Houston to be near their daughter and family. Harriett and Calvin had a loving marriage that lasted 67 years until his passing in 2020. Their deep love and devotion for each other touched everyone who knew them.

Harriett was preceded in death by her beloved Calvin and her parents. Harriett is survived by her devoted daughter Sherrie Kaplan (Richard), grandchildren Steven Kaplan (Erin), Lisa Rosenzweig (Shawn), and Brian Kaplan (Hannah). Harriett was blessed with six great-grandchildren, Reid, Drew, and Leigh Rosenzweig, and Brooke, Avery, and Chase Kaplan, whom she loved dearly.

She is also survived by her sister Sue Tilson, and numerous nieces and nephews.

A private graveside service will be held on November 9, at Congregation Beth Israel Memorial Garden with Rabbi David Lyon and Cantor Kenneth Feibush officiating. The family kindly requests that donations be made in Harriett's memory to Congregation Beth Israel or a charity of choice.

A livestream of the service will be available to view at 2 PM, on November 9th, at the following link:

<https://view.oneroomstreaming.com/index.php?data=MTY2Nzk0Mjc2ODIxNzk3MyZvbmVyb29tLWFkbWluJmNvcHlfbGluaw==>

Cemetery Details

Beth Israel Memorial Garden

1101 Antoine Dr.
Houston, TX 77055

Tribute Wall

MG

“ I met sweet Harriett & Calvin on my very first date with Bennett at the Dallas Summer Musicals in summer of 1984. Bennett took me there to see a Paul Anka performance. We ended up sitting with Calvin and Harriett for the dinner portion and I loved them right off the bat. Harriett was my Jewish Friend/Mother. She taught me all about the Jewish life and traditions. We had so many great memories, fun and laughs along the way. I think of Harriett and Calvin often.
What a blessing they were to us all. May they Rest In Peace together. ❤️

Marion L Glazer - November 08, 2022 at 05:32 PM