

Jack Maurice Laves

August 21, 1934 - January 28, 2023

Jack Maurice Laves, 88, passed away peacefully on Saturday, January 28th in Houston, Texas. Jack was born on August 21st, 1934 in Fort Worth, Texas to the late Sam and Gertrude Laves.

He attended "Pascal High School" in Fort Worth and later TCU and SMU where he played golf for both colleges. Jack joined the Army at Fort Bliss in Texas and was sent to Germany. He worked behind the scenes in Germany and wrote for Stars and Stripes. He was in the FDC and finally counter intelligence. He also played golf in both the French and German Open for the Army.

Upon his return, he mostly worked in the Jewelry business. He was a member of Congregation Brith Shalom in Houston, Texas.

He is survived by his wife, Sondra Laves, his three children, his son Barry Laves, daughters Stacey Laves-Khalifa and husband Norbert, Courtney Laves-Mearini and husband Michael, his sister Lana and husband Stanley Latman and their children Audrey and Jeremy Gruber, Candace and Brad Baer, and Brandon and Brenda Latman as well as grandniece and nephews. Sondra's sister Linda Freedman and nephews David and Josh Freedman.

A graveside service was held in Fort Worth at the Greenwood cemetery,

Congregation Beth El on February 10th.

In lieu of memorial offerings, the family requests that donations be made to Jack's favorite charity: The National Multiple Sclerosis Society, <https://www.nationalmssociety.org/Donate> .

Tribute Wall

LK

“ Hello Sondra.....so sorry to hear from Hava that you lost your dear husband, Jack.....I lost Sam almost 3years ago....may they rest in peace. My email is lenore@suntvl.com..

Lenore Kobren - June 22, 2023 at 09:18 AM