

Jacqueline S. Samuelson

March 25, 1940 - July 21, 2019

Jacqueline Samuelson was born in Houston, Texas, the 2nd daughter of Morris and Esther Sadoff. She is survived by her sister Marcia and her husband Dr. Irv Wishnow, her three children Albert Greenfield and his wife Amy, Allison & Dennis Taylor and Mindy Greenfield. Her Grandchildren Michael Taylor, Jennifer Taylor, Stephanie Brown and her husband Eddie and Gary Greenfield. Her Great grandchildren Louis Taylor and Amber Taylor.

Her family is extraordinarily grateful to the love and kindness of her best friend and caretaker Maria Barrios.

She is preceded in death by her parents, her sister Bonny Oshiro and her beloved Lionel Samuelson.

Jacqueline's passions included among others, raising, breeding and showing National Champion Toy Poodles, world travel and operating her well established beauty supply business now over 30 years strong. She and her husband Lionel started a franchise on the SW Freeway and brought in her daughter as a partner. Adding to that success they opened a 2nd store managed since its opening by her granddaughter Stephanie which continues to be successful and growing.
