Jennie Nachlas 1920-2017

Jennie Nachlas passed away on February 25, 2017. A native Houstonian, she was born to the late Helena and Phillip Morris.

Jennie was a natural born saleswoman. She could sell anything and did ... from clothing to hardware, from cosmetics to jewelry, from roofs to antiques.

Throughout her life, she enjoyed writing poetry. If a family member had a special occasion, she would write a verse commemorating the event. If something deeply troubled her, she would express it in the form of a poem.

Every morning, she looked forward to filling in the daily newspaper crossword puzzle in ink! Most important to her was the time spent with family.

Predeceased by loving husband of 55 years, Abe Nachlas, brother Joe Morris, sisters Libbie Chasnoff and Edith Kaufman. Survived by son and daughter-in-law, Marty and Barbara Nachlas, adored grandchildren, Stephanie and Greg, and numerous nieces and nephews.

Graveside services were held on Tuesday, February 28, 2017 at Beth Yeshurun Cemetery, Allen Parkway.

In lieu of flowers, please make a contribution in her memory to a charity of your choice.
