

Jerry Kaplan

May 7, 1930 - June 10, 2024

Jerome Clyde Kaplan (Jerry), 94, passed away peacefully on the morning of Monday, June 10, 2024

Jerry never knew a stranger. He greeted everyone around him with a smile or a high five and had the gift of making everyone in his path feel special.

Jerry was born in Houston, Texas on May 7, 1930. He attended San Jacinto High School and graduated from The University of Texas in Austin.

His greatest treasures were his children Barbara and Bruce Eskowitz, Wendy and Andy Bernstein, and Jeff and Teresa Kaplan as well as his grandchildren, Marshall and Jayme Eskowitz, Ashley and Neal Hoffman, Kevin and Betsy Eskowitz, Stacy Bernstein, Brian Bernstein, and Rachel Kaplan. He was additionally blessed with five great-grandchildren, Elle, Hayley, Emma, Milo and Kacie.

Jerry was preceded in death by his parents, Mollie and Louis Kaplan, and his brother and sister-in-law, Marvin and Joan Kaplan.

The family would like to thank Jerry's caregivers Silvia Cordero, Susy Marin and Nelly Arcos for providing him with exceptionally compassionate care.

The family requests that donations be made to the Mollie and Louis Kaplan Museum (<https://www.bethyeshurun.org/learn/mollie-louis-kaplan-museum-judaica>) at Congregation Beth Yeshurun or to a charity of your choice.
