

Joan M. Wishnet

May 23, 1932 - November 9, 2022

Joan Wishnet passed away peacefully on Nov. 9, 2022 and was 90 years old. She was born in Leonia, NJ to Nathan and Julia Rothman, the youngest of three children. Joan grew up in the Bronx in NYC and graduated a year early. Joan attended several years of college night school classes in accounting while working. Her favorite job was being an import/export logistics specialist, which gave her a love of travel and an appreciation of other cultures and food.

Joan married Lester Wishnet in 1954 and lived in NY, NJ, MA and finally moving to Houston, TX in 1975. Joan was active with the League of Women Voters and a proud lifelong member of Hadassah. Joan was a fantastic cook, became a painter in mid-life, a volunteer at the Houston Zoo, and the Houston Holocaust Museum. She was a skilled Mahjong and bridge player.

Joan is survived by her loving husband of nearly 68 years, Lester Wishnet, her daughter Amy Gold, and her granddaughter Nancy Gold, all of Houston, TX.
