

Joseph Altman

May 8, 1933 - December 6, 2019

The Houston Astros and Houston Rockets have one less fan with the passing of Joseph Altman. He loved his Houston teams and watched EVERY game, some even more than once.

Joseph shared his last 64 years with the love of his life, Claire. They traveled the world and cruised all of the seas and oceans. Joe photographed every detail of their trips. He enjoyed showing his slides as well as pictures to anyone and everyone.

Joseph was born in The Bronx to Ethel and Jack Altman. He is survived by his sister Francine Tietlebaum. He was proud to say "She is 91 and only takes 1 pill a day". He admired her and loved her. After his stint in the Army, Joe moved his family to Houston, to be near his Uncle Al and Aunt Dot. He was quite the salesman and eventually started his own business, Ideal Beauty Supply. Later in life he owned Salons of Post Oak, and co-owned Tranquility Salon & Day Spa with his son Ross.

Family was very important to him. He loved Sunday family dinners and yearly family trips. He took great pride in his 3 children Jodi Kessler and husband Glenn, Ross Altman and wife Donna, and Sari Obermeyer and husband Kevin. He felt blessed to have 6 incredible grandchildren, Davna, Jonathan, Macee, John, Erica, and Jeret. He enjoyed playing games with his 2 great grandchildren Madison and Brody. His face would light up anytime he saw or talked to one of his grandchildren or great grandchildren.

Being Jewish was not just his religion but a part of who he was. He was very proud of being a Bar Mitzvah at 13 and then again two more times as an adult. He is at peace and with G-d now. We are sure he is playing craps, golfing or having a chocolate milkshake.

We would like to thank Stuart Weisberg for all of his support with Joe. We would also like to thank everyone at The Auberge - Sugar Land for their personal care and support.

Donations in his memory may be made to Congregation Beth El or Brith Shalom, or the charity of your choice.
