

Jules Borger M.D.

March 1, 1931 - September 19, 2018

Jules Hirsch Borger M.D., beloved husband of Roselyn, passed away on September 19, 2018. A true native Houstonian, who loved his city and his Jewish community. He was honored to serve in the United States Air Force and had a fulfilling career in medicine.

He was predeceased by his son, Alan Mark Borger and sister Charlotte Abramson. Jules leaves to remember and love him forever, his wonderful children, Sharon And Eddie Grosman, Howard and Lori Borger, and Lois and Mike Davis. Grandpa Jules also leaves behind his grandchildren, Kalyan and Amrita Grosman, Adam and Ileya Grosman, Philip and Dana Grosman, Joshua and Alexandra Grosman, Kate Borger, Molly Borger, Max Borger, Kevin Stiller, and Rachel Stiller. He was also blessed to have five great grandchildren and a brother in law, Dr. Robert Friedman and wife Miriam, whom he loved more as a brother, and sister Dorothy Burnstein. Jules called himself the luckiest and richest man on earth to have had such a wonderful family and be blessed for 65 years of marriage, to his love - Rozie. We will always love and miss him dearly.

Donations in Jules's memory made be made to United Orthodox Synagogue or Hadassah Hospital.

Tribute Wall

SR

“ We are so Blessed to have Jules and Roz as our neighbors. We share in the sadness of his passing.
God's Grace and Blessings for you Roz and your family.
Sandra and Bill Royalty

Sandra and Bill Royalty - September 25, 2018 at 09:25 PM