

Kerry Glen Introligator

September 22, 1967 - June 11, 2025

Kerry Glen Introligator, a loving son, brother, father, and friend, passed away on Wednesday, June 11, 2025, in Houston, Texas. He was 57 years old. Known for his humorous, generous, and loving spirit, Kerry had a remarkable ability to make new friends easily and was always giving of himself.

Born on September 22, 1967, Kerry grew up and resided in Houston, Texas, throughout his life. He graduated from Bellaire High School before attending the University of Arizona in Tucson. Professionally, Kerry built a career in new and used machinery sales, where his affable nature served him well. In his leisure time, he enjoyed staying active with swimming and racquetball.

Kerry's warmth and giving nature touched many lives. He will be deeply missed by all who had the privilege of knowing him.

Kerry is survived by his loving children, son, Cole, and daughter, Carson. He leaves behind his parents, Judy and Dave, sisters, Amy and Lori, brother, Eric, and former spouse, Michelle. Kerry was a proud uncle to Jordan, Zachary, Michalie, and Eliana.

A memorial service to celebrate Kerry's life will be held on Wednesday, June 18, 2025, at 12:00 pm at Congregation Emanu El, 1500 Sunset Boulevard, Houston, TX 77005.

In lieu of flowers and honoring Kerry's spirit of generosity, the family requests that donations be made to Alexander Jewish Family Service, www.alexanderjfs.org/forms/memorial-tribute.

May his memory be a blessing. (Zichrono Livracha)

“ My condolences to Kerry's family and friends. Very sorry for your loss. So young. May he RIP.

Most that read my note won't know who I am. I'm from the old Michael Fox Auctioneers days in Baltimore, MD, and worked on many deals with Jack Intrologator and Bob Braman and the group at PMI in Houston.

My sincerest sympathy goes out to all of Kerry's family. Kerry was always filled with laughter and smiles when I would pick him and his siblings up for school carpool.
