

Konstantin Litvak

January 29, 1949 - March 11, 2024

Konstantin Matveyevich Litvak passed away at the age of 75 on Monday, March 11, 2024, following a courageous battle with a lengthy illness. Konstantin was preceded in death by his beloved wife, Asya Litvak. He is survived by his devoted daughter, Yuliya Litvak, extended family members and many friends.

He was born in Tashkent, Uzbekistan, on January 29, 1949, and spent his childhood years there before moving to Moscow. He pursued his education at the Moscow Oil Academy, now known as the Gubkin Russian State University of Oil and Gas, where he obtained a master's degree in chemical engineering and then worked for many years as a chemical engineer in Moscow.

In 1976, he met his wife, Asya Figlina Litvak. They were soon married and had one daughter, Yuliya. In 1992, the family immigrated to the United States and settled in Houston, Texas. Continuing to utilize his skills and education, he worked as a chemist for 20 years before his retirement.

Konstantin was known for his love and devotion to his family, prizing Asya and Yuliya above all else. His friends were also extremely important to him, and he maintained life-long friendships with so many dear friends from around the world. He had many interests and hobbies, including animals, history, drawing, creating clay sculptures and other creative projects, and he was definitely one to never pass up a fishing trip. His passion for cooking and entertaining led to parties and family gatherings where his homemade dishes were the stars of each evening.

Konstantin had a Jewish soul. He was kind, considerate and always ready to help his loved ones, opening his home to friends and family alike. His memory will be a blessing to all who knew him.

“ Sincere condolences to the family. I am so very sorry for your loss. May God provide the necessary peace and comfort to your family and friends during this difficult time. Please remember these words of encouragement from the Bible: “ Jesus plainly told her: “I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life.” —John 11:20-25.
