

Lilyan "Bootsie" Feld

June 1, 1928 - March 22, 2024

Lilyan Sylvia (Bootsie) Feld, 95, of Houston, Texas, passed away peacefully on March 22, 2024, in Houston, Texas. She was lovingly laid to rest next to her husband Irving in a graveside service on Wednesday, March 27, 2024 at Emanu El Memorial Park.

Born on June 1, 1928 to the late Rosa Golda and Jacob Hanovich, Bootsie graduated from San Jacinto High School in 1946. A people-person at heart, she enjoyed working in retail sales selling clothes, furniture, and appliances, but she especially loved selling toys. Bootsie had many hobbies including baking, traveling, and volunteering. She and her husband Irving spent many years helping out at Seven Acres and were longtime members of Congregation Emanu El before joining Congregation Brith Shalom.

Bootsie is survived by her daughter, Wendy Conaway and husband Steven, grandchildren Jason and Jeremy Moore, and Lloyd and Michael Conaway, great granddaughters Ellen and Margaret, and many nieces, nephews, and other loving friends and family. She is preceded in death by sisters Anna Ray and Mamie Hanovich, Jennie Radoff, Toby Hertz, and brothers Joe and Maurice Hanovich.

The family requests that any donations to honor her memory be made to Seven Acres Jewish Senior Care Services, 6200 North Braeswood Blvd,

Houston Texas, 77074. www.sevenacres.org/donate

Cemetery Details

Emanu El Memorial Park

8341 Bissonnet St
Houston, TX 77074

Previous Events

Graveside Service

MAR 27. 11:00 AM (CT)

Emanu El Memorial Park
8341 Bissonnet St
Houston, TX 77074

Tribute Wall

SR

“ My condolences to Wendy and her family. So sorry to hear this, I first met Wendy and her parents, at 7 Acres, where we were all volunteers. Bootsie was a delight, she always told funny stories. She will be missed. Baruch Dayan Ha-Emet.

Shirlee Rosenthal - April 02, 2024 at 04:53 PM