

Linda Sue Fleischer

December 17, 1951 - March 12, 2022

Linda Sue Fleischer passed away on Saturday, March 12, 2022, in Houston, Texas at age of 70. Throughout Linda's life she was an avid crafter, baker, dancer, collector, estate, and garage sale extraordinaire. Linda was very involved in the Jewish community. As a teenager she was an active member of BBG, and later she was one of the founders of the original Jewish Singles Group of Houston. As an adult she discovered a love for country western dancing, where she met the love of her life, Carl Sullivan. Linda was a beautiful and passionate person who devoted her life to our family. She held a special connection with every one of us and was the glue that held us together. The hostess with the mostest and our lives are richer because of the unconditional love she blessed us with. There is now an immeasurable void in our lives, but cherished moments to hold dearly in our hearts and memories forever. Linda was preceded in death by her parents, Bob & Ruth Fleischer. She is survived by her daughter Kim Kubiak & husband Mike and Kim's four children: Joshua Lehman & wife Molly, and their daughters Ella & Georgia. Jeremy Beadling & Dani, Steven Beadling and Morgan Beadling. Her three sisters; Barbra Hass & husband Jeff, Debra Butler, and Mindy Fleischer. Her many nieces and nephews; Jason Hass & Jamie and their son Jackson. Jeremy Hass & wife Alma and their sons Jake & Jayden. Celia Pate & husband Tyler. Lindsay Garcia & husband Joseph. Rachel Mescon, Cory Mescon, Michael Mescon & Ellie and Hailey Mescon. A graveside service will be held on Thursday, March 17, 2022 at 11:00 AM at Beth Yeshurun Post

Oak, 1037 Post Oak Rd. Houston, TX 77055. The family kindly asks you to consider sending memorial donations to support the fight against pancreatic cancer in memory of our beloved Linda to the Pancreatic Cancer Action Network www.pancan.org.
