

Nathan Caplovitz

December 23, 1936 - April 27, 2026

Nathan Caplovitz, age 89, of Addison, Texas, passed away on Monday, April 27, 2026. He was preceded in death by his parents, Faye and Herman Caplovitz, and his brother, Louis Caplovitz. He leaves behind his sister, Roz Shosid; his beloved wife of 60 years, Iris Caplovitz; and their three children — Bryan Caplovitz, Michael Caplovitz, and Cathryn Mellon. He is also survived by ten grandchildren: Matthew, Benjamin, Rachel, Max, Tyler, Sienna, Jacob, Sophia, Sam, and Sadie.

Nathan served in the Air National Guard and the Air Force Reserve from 1959-1965, embodying loyalty, honesty, and a profound sense of right and wrong. He lived by a simple code: do the right thing, fight for what you believe in, and live a life of honor.

He loved traveling, finding distant relatives, puttering around the house, and going on “alley runs” to discover hidden treasures that others had discarded, giving them new life with his own hands and imagination.

Through the years, Nathan touched countless lives with his wisdom, humor, and endless supply of stories and dad jokes. His presence was a source of steadiness and warmth, and his memory will continue to be a blessing to all who knew him.

A graveside service will take place on Wednesday, April 29, 2026, at 11:00 am at Beth Yeshurun Post Oak Cemetery, 7445 Awty School Lane, Houston, Texas 77055.

In honor of Nathan's life, the family invites donations to MD Anderson Cancer Center, a cause close to his heart, <https://gifts.mdanderson.org/>.
