

Pamela Butler

January 21, 1945 - March 26, 2018

Pamela Butler passed away peacefully on Monday the 26th of March at the age of 73. Pam was a native Houstonian and graduate of Bellaire High School. She cherished family and friends and was devoted to them all. Pam was a kind and fun-loving person who always had a smile on her face, even when her friends beat her at a game of mah jong or her great niece covered her hands in multi-colored nail polish. She was passionate about football and an avid fan of the Houston Oilers and Texans. Any Dallas Cowboy fan who came to a family event was guaranteed to receive some spirited ribbing.

These memories will be forever treasured.

Pam was preceded in death by her parents, the late Melanie "Deedie" and M. Jack Butler. She is survived by her sister, Janis Frank, and husband Bob; nieces Jennifer Caras and husband Jason; Stacey Cook and husband John; great niece and nephews Grace, Taylor and Aaron.

The family would like to thank Andrea Pillar and Tina Martin for the wonderful care and friendship you provided to her. Because of you, Pam was able to live a much more fulfilling life over the last few years.

In lieu of customary remembrances, contributions in Pam's memory may be made to Texas Children's Hospital, designated to the Pawsitive Play Program, 1919 S. Braeswood, Suite 5214, Houston, TX, 77030,
