

Pat Laviage

January 25, 1918 - August 6, 2015

Pat Laviage died August 6, 2015 in Houston surrounded by her caring family. She was born January 25, 1918 in Grayson, Texas. At a young age she moved to Texas City, Texas, opened a business and met Jack Laviage who she married and with whom she lived happily together for 65 years until his death in 2012. After living briefly in Portland, Oregon they moved to Houston to join the remainder of a large Laviage/Nathan family.

Pat is survived by her three children Sandra Veedell, Michael Laviage and his wife Elissa, all from Houston, and Arline Verkauf and her husband, Dr Barry Verkauf of Tampa, Florida. She is also survived by 7 grandchildren - Maury Veedell (Diane), Steve Veedell, Joel Veedell (Debi), Viki Veedell (Dan Marks), Leslie Cohen (Danny), Jason Laviage (Marcy) and Brian Laviage (Jessica). Pat was predeceased by her granddaughter, Stefanie Verkauf (Michael Costello) and grandson Reagan Veedell.

She is also survived by 14 great grandchildren.

With gratitude the family thanks her devoted caregivers Maria Sifuentes, Carmen Silva, Minerva Torres and Leah Johnson.

A private family graveside burial will be held on Monday, August 10 immediately followed at 11:00 by a service and reception at Temple Emanu El, 1500 Sunset Blvd, Houston 77005.

In lieu of flowers, contributions to honor Pat Laviage may be sent to Tipton Children's Home, PO Box 370, Tipton, Oklahoma 73570.
