Ray Bell Kahn Goldgar, 90, died on March 8, 2016 in Houston Texas. Ray was born to Essie and Sophie Kahn in Dallas Texas on June 24, 1925. She is preceded in death by husband Wilfred and daughter Elaine Goldgar, father, Essie Kahn and mother Sophie Kahn, brothers, Bernard (Bunny) Kahn, and Alec Kahn, brother-in-law and Irving Goldgar, sister-in-law, Emy Lou Goldgar and Melba Kahn. She is survived by daughter Jere Goldgar and brother-in-law Eugene Goldgar and his wife Debbie, nieces and nephews, Ginny Kahn Coogler and husband Keith, Bill Kahn and wife, Steve Kahn, Jody Goldgar, Jan Goldgar, Rick Goldgar, Martha Goldgar, Jen Seay and husband Mike, and Josh Goldgar. Ray was a homemaker for most of her adult life. She was a devoted wife to her husband Wilfred for over 54 years. It was an adoring relationship, so loving and close. She was very ambitious for her daughters making sure she gave them a foundation for success. She wanted more than anything than for both to live independent, self-sufficient lives. Ray was a fashionista. She loved looking pretty until the end. She was emphatic about wearing makeup and stylish clothes every day.

The family recognizes Future Woodard and Hazel McFarlin who lovingly cared for Mom as if she was their very own Mom. There no words that can express the gratitude felt by the family. These two ladies will forever be a part of our extended family. Additionally, the family thanks Health Care staff at Brookdale Galleria for caring for her.
