

Raymond Brudno

October 1, 1930 - February 12, 2021

Raymond Brudno, 90, passed away on in Houston, Texas on 2/12/2021.

Born in Cleveland Ohio, Raymond met Ann, the love of his life when his poker buddies encouraged him to ask a visiting South African woman on a blind date. Six months after their blind date, they married and she moved to the United States. They enjoyed 64 beautiful years during which they travelled the world. During their marriage, Raymond earned a masters degree and a CPA license and worked as Chief Financial Officer.

Raymond is survived by his daughters, Jillian and Debra along with their spouses, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at Emanuel Memorial Park. Due to Covid restrictions, the service will be for immediate family only.

Memorial donations may be made to Alzheimer's Association or American Friends of Magen David Adom. The family thanks all of his caregivers for their tender care.
