

Rosalind Freedman Woods

January 8, 1937 - June 12, 2026

Rosalind Freedman Woods, 89, passed away on June 12, 2026, in Angleton, Texas.

Born on January 8, 1937, in Houston, Texas, Rosalind lived a life marked by kindness. She was a quiet and gentle soul; soft-spoken and kind-hearted. She was never one to gossip or judge others and was simply a good and honest person.

She found joy in sewing, embroidering, crocheting, cooking, baking, decorating and making her house a home, for the last few years she was a master at word searches and impressed everyone around her with her ability to solve them. More than anything, she cherished her family and took great pride in her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren.

She is survived by her children, David and wife, Kim, Jill and husband, Brent, Randy and wife, Cindy, grandchildren, Cayce and wife, Gabriela, Sydney and husband, Mark, Alex, Ashley, Molly, and Sophie and great-grandchildren, Allie, Ava, Max, Nia and Lia, brother, Louis and wife, Ruthie, as well as her angel on earth and beloved friend Billie Carr.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Max and Molly, her beloved son, Sammy, and her husband, James.

Her family will remember her for her gentle spirit and loving heart. After the passing of her oldest son, Sammy, Rosalind told the story of the day of his adoption when they placed him in her arms, a tiny little baby, eyes swollen shut from crying wrapped in a dingy yellow blanket. To honor him for many years she crocheted baby blankets for a charity that provided them to any baby who didn't have a special blanket to go home with; she said "every baby should have a blanket" this is the Rosalind her family will remember.

A graveside service will be held at 10:00 am on Monday, June 15, 2026, at Emanu El Memorial Park, 8341 Bissonnet St., Houston, Texas, 77074.
