

Rosita Goldberger

October 30, 1951 - April 14, 2019

It is with the greatest sadness that we announce the passing of our beloved mother, grandmother, aunt, sister, cousin and friend, Rosita Goldberger, 67, of Houston, Texas. Rosita passed away peacefully on Monday, April 14th surrounded by her children.

She was born in Bogota, Colombia to Margalit and Josel Bibliowicz. She married José Goldberger in 1970 and moved to Curacao and Germany before settling in Houston. Rosie's greatest passion was her children, grandchildren and family. She was an avid traveler which led to her establishing her successful travel agency. She enjoyed life to its fullest and touched everyone she met. She will be remembered for her love of life, her smile, her salsa dancing and her generosity.

She was preceded in death by José. She is survived by her children: Cindy Goldberger, Arieh Goldberger and wife Irit Levy, children Ilay & Sigal, Steven Goldberger and wife Julie, children Jared and Abby, brother Abraham Bibliowicz and wife Lucy, brother Meyer Bibliowicz and wife Selma, sister Sonia Rydz and husband Jacobo along with many nieces and nephews, cousins and friends.

Donations can be made to either Congregation Brith Shalom or The Make-A-Wish Foundation.
