“ It is with a dad heart that I bid farewell to my Cousin Sandy. We both grew up in Bexley Ohio which is a suburb of Columbus. Bexley is and was a “ Leave To Beaver “ type of community. It was the perfect place to go to school and enjoy a great childhood. We were lucky to reside there. Sandy was always a good looking guy. He moved to Huston to attend college and then married a beautiful girl. We was a successful Texan and had a lovely family. Sorry buddy you will be missed.

“ When you've known someone for 60 years, and all you have are positive memories filled with joy and laughter, then you've had Sandy as a friend. He was a proud husband, father, brother. Long distance love and hugs to Carol, Cary, Brett and the whole family.
