Scott Sherbel passed away in Houston, Texas at the age of 69 on Friday, May 3, 2024.

He was the second born child of Cecily and Murray Sherbel and lived most of his life in Houston. He had a head for business and worked at his father's car dealership before taking over his father-in-law's pest control company, Firestone Termite & Pest Control, for over 30 years. He met and married the love of his life, Sherri, when they were teens and were married for over 40 years. Together they had two sons, Matthew and Jared.

Scott was always known for his love of the Beatles and an eclectic taste in movies and TV shows from Perry Mason to Pitch Perfect. Scott loved hitting up the slots and blackjack tables in Las Vegas. When he wasn't traveling, Scott enjoyed catching a game of his favorite baseball team, the Astros.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Cecily and Murray Sherbel.

Scott was a wonderful husband, father, grandfather, and friend. He is survived by his wife, Sherri, his sister, Stephanie Jasuta, his sons and their spouses, Matthew Sherbel and Arielle Epstein, and Jared Sherbel and Aaron Rathbun, his granddaughter, Riley, and many cousins, nieces, nephews, and friends.

The family has requested that any donations in Scott's name can be made to Stand Up to Cancer (<https://standuptocancer.org>) or the charity of your choice.

“No one is finally dead until the ripples they cause in the world die away, until the clock wound up winds down, until the wine she made has finished its ferment, until the crop they planted is harvested. The span of someone's life is only the core of their actual existence.”

— Terry Pratchett, Reaper Man

“ My father Les Hallonquist and myself knew Scott for 20+ years as he serviced the townhomes we work at. He was a great man and have many memories of especially sharing some Shipleys donuts. Scott will be missed by all.

“ *Sherri, Matthew, and Jared,
We were always so fond of Scott. Although we knew him from his work at Firestone, our connection to him felt like a good friendship. He was a very fine person and he spoke lovingly about his family. With sincere and deep sympathy,
Diane and Stanley Novy*
