

Sheldon Donald Arsham

April 20, 1937 - July 6, 2024

Sheldon Donald Arsham, affectionately known as Shelly, passed away peacefully surrounded by his loved ones on Saturday, July 6, 2024.

Born in Cleveland, Ohio on April 20, 1937, to Sanford and Betty Arsham, he lived a wonderful childhood alongside his younger brother, Harvey. He graduated from Glenville High School and later went on to Ohio State University where he met the love of his life, Shirley.

After a brief courtship, the two of them moved to Houston, were married in 1960, and enjoyed 63 years of an absolutely beautiful marriage. He had a successful scrap metal career from the time he moved to Houston until his retirement two years ago.

In addition to his passion for his beloved Shirley and work, he loved being a father, and later in life, the blessing of being a Poppi to his 6 grandchildren. He also loved music, cheese pockets from Three Brother's Bakery, Coconut Bars from Davis Bakery in Ohio, and his dog, Charlie.

Shelly is survived by his wife, Shirley Robinson Arsham; daughter, Lanny Arsham; son, Andrew Arsham, and wife, Clementina; son, Jeff Arsham; grandchildren, Ali Bamberger, Samantha Gutierrez (Carlos), Sarita, Marc, Sasha and Sophia Arsham. He is also survived by his brother, Harvey

Arsham, and wife, Nicci, sisters in law, Anita Stewart and Mallory Robinson, and countless nieces, nephews, and cousins.

In lieu of flowers, contributions can be made to Alexander Jewish Family Service (<https://www.alexanderjfs.org/>), Jewish Federation of Greater Houston (<https://www.houstonjewish.org/>), or the charity of your choice.

“ My uncle passed on a very holy day - Shabbat Rosh Hodesh just like Grandma Betty passing on Shabbat. It's like a first class ticket into the next world. He was also a big inspiration to me and always moved the crowd when he walked into a room. We also used to laugh together for no reason - laughter just came out of nowhere. He liked to call me "Big K" and we shared the same passion for business, advertising and Coconut Bars. - Kevin Arsham

My most sincere and heartfelt sympathies to Harvey and the rest of the Arsham family. There are no words that could ever express my profound thankfulness for this wonderful man who unselfishly helped me in my time of need to visit my father. I enjoyed all my time working for him. The world has lost a wonderful man but heaven has gained a wonderful angel. Beverly Stewart
