

Shirley Stern

October 20, 1926 - May 2, 2017

Shirley Stern was born in Chicago IL. When she was young, the family moved to Knox IN. where her father's business was located. Several years later they moved back to Chicago, where Shirley attended the University of Chicago Lab School. This is where she met her future husband, Arnold Stern. Arnold and Shirley were married at the Drake Hotel, Chicago IL in 1946. Shirley and Arnold shared 13 years together and had four children before Arnold's untimely death.

Shirley lived most of her life in the Chicago area. In 2009, at the age of 82, she relocated to Houston. Here she lived in a home near her daughter, until recently, when she relocated to an assisted living community.

Shirley was a passionate writer all her life. She also enjoyed theater, art and was an avid bridge player.

Shirley is predeceased by her husband Arnold Stern and her brother Jerome Taitel. She is survived by her four children, David Stern (Nadine), Peggy Gullo (Frank), Steven Stern, and Richard Stern (Patricia), her five grandchildren Matthew Gullo (Rebekah), Jennifer Beckman (Tony), Danny Gullo (Morgan), Brian Stern, and Christina Vasquez, her three great grandchildren Matthew Beckman, Rylie Gullo, and Finley Gullo, and a brother Arthur Taitel (Sharon).

Shirley was loved and will be missed by her family and friends.
