

Susan Gale Glesby

November 1, 1947 - October 1, 2022

Susan Gale Glesby, beloved daughter, sister, sister-in-law, aunt, great-aunt and cousin, peacefully passed away at her home on October 1, 2022.

Susan was born on November 1, 1947 in Houston, Texas, and remained a life-long resident. Susan graduated from Bellaire High School in 1965 and from the University of Arizona in 1969.

Susan is predeceased by her parents, Morris and Veda Mae Glesby. Susan is survived by her brother, Gary Steven Glesby and wife, Nancy Sorensen Glesby, and their children, Lauren Glesby Mahan, and Tracy Glesby Northington and husband, William G. Northington, and their daughter, Charlotte Sarah Northington, and her five first cousins. For their loving care, affection, and personal attention, a very special thanks to Rosa Cantu (19 years), Shannon Rhodes (23 years), Elsa Uresti, (18 years), Laura Rojas (7 years), and to Carla Jackson and all the caregivers of Private Home Health Care, Inc. who were devoted to Susan for the last several months.

The internment service was private. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Glesby Family Memorial Fund c/o The Jewish Federation of Greater Houston, PJ Library c/o The Jewish Federation of Greater Houston, or a charity of choice.

We love you to the moon and back.

Tribute Wall

TG

“ *Susan's wit and humor has been and will continue to be missed...
Rest In Peace Susan. Therese Ranzau Garner*

---

Therese ranzau garner - October 07, 2022 at 02:09 PM

TB

“ Sent with love and remembrance,

---

Tish Bolin - October 05, 2022 at 07:55 AM

LD

“ Dear Gary, Nancy and family, So sorry to hear about the passing of Susan. We are thinking of you and sending prayers.

---

Love, Cindy and David - October 04, 2022 at 03:20 PM