

Sylvia Fletcher

May 5, 1919 - January 7, 2015

On January 7, 2015, Sylvia Fletcher peacefully passed away at home. She was 95 years old. She was born in NYC on May 5, 1919, to Rebecca and Charles Ausfresser. She is predeceased by her beloved husband of 56 years, Hal Fletcher as well as her son, Brad Fletcher. She leaves behind daughter, Ona Fletcher Fuller and daughter, Shelley Ann Young (and husband Chuck). Sylvia had 4 grandchildren: Courtney Leigh, Marcus Weisman, Josh Weisman (and wife Trish) and Jonathan Weisman (and wife Laura). Sylvia had one great-granddaughter, Bliss Weisman. She was calm, strong, kind and generous to all. Sylvia never had a harsh word to say about anyone. Her family meant the world to her. She was a great listener. She had the patience of a saint. She was always encouraging and positive, no matter what. She was a member of Congregation Beth Israel. Funeral services will be at Beth Israel's Woodlawn Cemetery, with Rabbi Josh Herman officiating, at 11:00am, Friday, January 9, 2015.
