

Sylvia Gandler Solomon

December 31, 1925 - May 5, 2023

Sylvia Gandler Solomon, born December 31, 1925, passed away in her home on May 5, 2023. Born in Waco, TX, to Reuben and Faige Gandler, she was the last survivor of her three older siblings—Ida Kator, Minnie Pulman, and Jake Gandler—and of her husband Bernard Solomon and his siblings Bernice Reich and Mary Krute.

Sylvia married Bernard, her beloved husband and partner, in 1949. They shared 43 wonderful years together before he passed away in 2002. She is survived by their three loving children—Shari Wright, Mitch and J.D. Solomon—numerous grandchildren and great-grandchildren, and scores of nieces and nephews and their children; she loved and cherished every one of them immensely.

Growing up during the Great Depression, Sylvia often worked in her dad's bakery as a child, starting at 4:30 in the morning before going to school. As an adult, she enjoyed traveling the world with Bernard and her family and friends, volunteering at the Shriners Hospital, and keeping up with her countless loved ones.

She will be remembered as a loving mom, grandma, great-grandma, aunt, devoted friend, and avid Mahjong player.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks for any donations to be made to Jewish Family Service or the Southern Poverty Law Center.
