“ I've been thinking about her so much and memories of us working together. The first six months while we were getting to know each other we had some growing pains. Around then I started to earn her trust and she mine. She became a wonderful friend and trusted mentor. God used her in my life and marriage. She loved her Lord, family and friends. I thank the Lord for placing her in my life and using her to strengthen my walk with my Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Dolly, I will see you again my friend. I thank you for everything. I'm praying for your heartbroken family who are reeling from the heartache they're feeling.
